Win two nights at England's Best Small Hotel

RELAXING:
The Gilpin Lake House is a mixture of traditional and contemporary

IT'S been voted England's Best Small Hotel 2010 by Visit England, and no wonder. The Gilpin Hotel and Lake House, is a boutique-style hotel in a simply stunning setting, just two miles from Windermere.

Barney and Zoe Cunliffe were delighted to receive the award on behalf of the Cunliffe family and their loyal team, who have been running the hotel since 1987. "The award reflects our dedication to good old fashioned hospitality," says Barney.

The restaurant and bar provide an AA 3-rossette dining experience with dishes that celebrate the best of the Lake District and West coast seafood.

The main hotel is a blend of traditional and contemporary. In addition, the Gilpin Lake House is being opened next month, comprising six stunning suites designed by award-winning interior designer Sarah-Jane Neilson. The house is set on a beautiful, four-acre private lake with boat-house and boat. The spa's traditional sauna and indoor swimming pool lead out onto the lake shore and outdoor cedar wood hot tub; spa treatments can be taken in the privacy of your room.

The 100 acres of private gardens and grounds include summerhouse, kitchen gardens, a druid's circle and a lake walk.

"You can enjoy breakfast and afternoon tea from the fire-lit lounge and conservatory and for dinner a chauffeur will bring you to the main hotel, just a mile away," says Barney.

WIN A STAY AT THE LAKE HOUSE

ONE lucky reader can win two nights dinner, bed and breakfast for two at the Lake House, worth £1,100. This offer is midweek and subject to availability. To stand a chance of winning, just tell us how far the Gilpin Hotel and Lake House are from Windermere.

Answers to Best Small Hotel Competition, Features, Living Magazine, Priestgate, Darlington DL1 1NF. The closing date is Monday, July 26, and usual Newsquest competition rules apply.
